

2016 Asia Pacific
Lymphology
Conference

New Networks - New Solutions
26-28 May 2016 Darwin Australia

Hosted by:

www.2016asiapacificlymphologyconference.com

Pre Conference Workshop

Title	Wound Management and Lymphoedema – What, When and Where
Presenters	Jan Rice, Masters in Wound Care, RN Div 1, Director, Jan Rice WoundCareServices, Melbourne  Professor Terence Ryan, Emeritus Professor of Dermatology, Oxford University and Oxford Brookes University
Duration	3 hours
Date/time	Wednesday 25 May 2016, 1.30 pm to 4.30 pm
Venue	Vibe Hotel, Darwin Waterfront, 7 Kitchener Drive, Darwin
Learning Objectives	At the end of this session, participants will be able to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Identify tissue types and needs</li> <li>• Identify the kinds of skin breakdown and wounds which most commonly affect lymphedema patients, with particular reference to those who live in tropical regions</li> <li>• Describe best practices for skin cleansing for lymphedema patients</li> <li>• Understand the complexity of wound product choice</li> <li>• Rationalise the aim of treatment and ideal product choice</li> <li>• Describe low-budget wound care methods and products to use when resources are limited</li> </ul>